Dear Dr. Burlingh,

I enclose the copy of the table which I showed you in Napanee, together with the family tables of the 4 James McKims as far as my niece and I have been able to reconstruct them.

I should be most grateful for any additions or amendments to these lists which you may be able to make from your extensive knowledge of pioneer families.

The lists are for your records; I have kept copies of them.

With kindest regards,

Arthur B. Fennell

Dear Sir,
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the
and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration.
I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. H. [Name]

MRS. M. B. SCHERMERHORN

On Saturday evening, July 20, Mrs. Marshall B. Schermerhorn passed peacefully away in hospital in Kingston, in her 90th year.

The deceased, formerly Blanche McKim, was the youngest of a family of 11 children of the late Lewis McKim, and his wife, Mary Ann Sexsmith, of Selby, whose U.E.L. parents were among the earliest pioneers of what was then known as Tenth Town, now Richmond Township.

Mrs. Schermerhorn was united in marriage to her late husband, Marshall B. Schermerhorn, at Grace United Church parsonage, Napanee, by Rev. C. O. Johnston, in 1889. They took up residence on the Schermerhorn homestead just north of Napanee, where they resided a number of years. Upon retiring, they moved to Selby, and in 1904 to Napanee, where they continued to reside.

In her early years, deceased was received into the membership of Selby Wesleyan Methodist Church, now United Church of Canada, which connection she enjoyed in Grace Church, Napanee.

Of a cheerful and energetic disposition, her interests centred around her home and comfort of her family. Fond of music, her greatest enjoyment was found in the singing of familiar hymns to her own accompaniment on the organ.

Predeceased by her husband in 1921, and only son, Henry L., in 1954, she is survived by two grandsons, Henry and John, and three great-grandchildren, Daniel, Jay, and Susan Schermerhorn.

The funeral service was held at the Tierney Funeral Home, Tuesday, July 23, and in the absence of her pastor, Rev. C. D. McLellan, was in charge of Rev. John Renshaw, of Selby, who delivered a comforting message and sang a favorite selection of the deceased, "In the Sweet Bye and Bye." Interment was made in the family plot at Riverside Cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Blake Denison, Joseph Murphy, John Simpson, Thorold Dupre, John Brady and Robert McGreer.

This table was prepared presumably by H. Horton McKim, 1888 and given to Thomas H. McKim of Vancouver B.C. There are a number of obvious errors. Alexander who came to Canada in 1896 should be James, who came probably in 1784. Elijah should be his son should be William. & A number of misprints have been corrected in the copying.
